Merchandise

Caskets — Do not offer

(A complete list will be provided at the funeral establishment)

Minnesota law does not require you to purchase a casket for cremation. If you want to arrange a cremation, you can use a cremation container. A cremation container is a combustible, closed container that encases the body and can be made of materials like fiberboard or corrugated cardboard and into which a dead human body is placed prior to insertion into a cremation chamber for cremation. The containers we provide are cardboard.

Alternative Containers — $0

(A complete list will be provided at the funeral establishment)

Rental Caskets — Do not offer

(A complete list will be provided at the funeral establishment)

If you choose a funeral service where a rental casket is provided, the casket used for the funeral service may have been used in a previous funeral service. If the casket has been used in a previous funeral service, the interior lining has been either replaced or thoroughly cleaned.

Urns — $50-$300

(A complete list will be provided at the funeral establishment)

Outer Burial Containers — $80-$120

(A complete list will be provided at the funeral establishment)
